

Monday 20th April:

Here is today's little ditty to read together...

Tricky words: rope snuggle together choose

What shall we play today?

We can skip with a rope in the garden. We can get our pens and do some art. Or, we can snuggle up tight and have our best book together.

What will you choose?

Notes to parents: I don't expect the children to be able to read the tricky words straight away but if you've looked at them together before you start to read, the children should be able to get them in context. Once you've read a few times you can have a go at writing today's 'hold a sentence'...

We can get our pens.

The extension sentence if you want it...

We can be snug with a book.

When writing, don't forget to encourage the children to use their neat writing, leave finger spaces and sound out their words. Happy reading and writing to you all!

Red word fun!

You can use this page to practise your child's red words. You can point to them out of order or have a little timed challenge to see how fast your child can read them all!
