

Luskentyre Beach, Isle of Harris

Perranporth Beach, Cornwall

Cromer, Norfolk

Harlyn Bay, Cornwall

*Saltburn by the Sea,
East Riding of Yorkshire*

Brighton, East Sussex

Flamborough, East Riding of Yorkshire

Hartland Point, Devon

Old Harry Rocks, Dorset

Bempton Cliffs, Yorkshire

Elegug Stack Bay, Pembrokeshire

Old Man of Hoy, Orkney Islands

Investigating Coasts

UK Map Sheet

Name: _____

Date: _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

Describe how you think these different coastal areas were formed.

Neist Point, Skye

St. Michael's Mount, Cornwall

Chesil Beach, Dorset

erosion landform
deposits

deposition landform
sediment cliffs

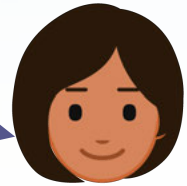

waves
beach

wind

Name: _____

Date: _____

Use an interactive map to help you answer these questions.
You will need to be able to zoom in and out.

What is the coast like in Kynance Cove, Cornwall, England?

---

---

Name three coastal towns in Tunisia:

---

---

Why do you think Laguna Beach in California, USA, is popular with sun-bathers and holiday-makers?

---

---

What is the most southern coastal town in Australia? What is the coast like there?

---

---

What is the coast like near Wick, Scotland?

---

---

What is the coast of Rarotonga (one of the Cook Islands) like?

---

---