

Mr Johnson's Christmas Homework!

Here are some ideas for homework for the Christmas holidays. Take your pick! How many can you do?

Remember, the most important thing is to have fun!

1. Make a list of things you really want to learn or achieve next year.
2. Draw a picture of Santa or Rudolph and hang it on your fridge.
3. Tell some Christmas jokes to your family.
4. Give someone a present.
5. Play a board game.
6. Have a dance party in the living room to your favourite songs.
7. Can you make a snowman out of something different? Maybe lego or plasticine – the choice is yours!
8. Can you write your own song or rap, and perform it to your family?
9. Have a meal with your family and talk about your favourite memories of this year and the best things that happened to you.
10. Write a letter to a friend or family member and pop it in the post!
11. Birds can get very hungry at this time of year. Can you make a bird feeder out of a milk carton, box or bottle and hang it outside?
12. Can you make a snow globe out of an empty container? What will you put inside?
13. Have a family film night.
14. Can you help to bake some biscuits or a cake?
