Red Word Challenge

Read the tricky words:

no      so      go      by      my here      there      where come      some      were      said

Challenge:

Now play the spelling game below called "Spelling Game". Try and play the game with each word at least once.

Ditty Time!

Can you read all the tricky words in these sentences? I've put a line under them. Try reading the sentences a few times until you can read them easily.

There was once a princess called Elizabeth.

One day a dragon came by and took her to where he lived.

She was mad! She put on a paper bag and went to go after him.

Hold a sentence:

"Where are you going dragon?"

"I will come after you!"
